ON THE ROAD To The Title

ROUND FOURTEEN PREVIEW

Blacktown will go into this Friday night game in high spirits after their deserved win over Macarthur, while Fairfield will be exactly the opposite after their 6-0 thrashing at the hands of Bonnyrigg. Blacktown Coach Brian Brown will be telling his team not to take this one lightly, and while there will be no repeat of the Bonnyrigg scoreline for the Bulls Super Soccer expects the Demons to collect another three points.

Macarthur Rams v Leichhardt Tigers

Before last week this one looked a home banker. All of a sudden though this becomes a tough game to call, with Macarthur being soundly beaten by Blacktown and Coach Casey Debruin far from impressed with their efforts. The Tigers Steve Karavakatis will be closely watched after his five star performance last week, although the Rams would be well advised not to concentrate all their efforts on him - Leichhardt are a solid outfit. We tip a draw in this one.

Central Coast v Canterbury-Marrickville

The Coasties had a good chance to end a wretched run against Sutherland last week but unfortunately their game was washed out. Desperate for a win the Coasties will through everything at the Berries here. Canterbury Marrickville were once again indebted to Steve Christoforidis last week, as the striker maintains his knack of scoring vital goals. This should be another close game but Canterbury Marrickville should just have enough to continue the Coasties poor run.

Parramatta Eagles v Bonnyrigg White Eagles

This should be a cracker! The Eagles are unbeaten at home and face a Bonnyrigg White Eagles side in excellent form. The Eagles have unearthed some good young players through their excellent youth ranks - the Parramatta U21's and U18's are both top of their leagues - and will fancy their chances as always at home. Bonnyrigg will go into this one fearing nobody, and Super League leading scorer Colin Luff will once again look to add to his total of 13 goals. A word for youngster Ben Green as well, who has caught the eye since coming into first grade but Super Soccer thinks him and his team mates may be returning home with just a point here.

Fairfield Bulls v Bankstown City Lions

It is a measure of their season that it was surprise the Bulls got thrashed last week. A good coach, good set-up and more importantly, good players mean the game should be consigned as a one-off. The Bulls face a difficult away match at Blacktown on the Friday, and while Super Soccer are tipping them to lose that one we are tipping them to bounce back in style and pick up the three points here. Bankstown haven't gone on from their good start to their season, although the disruption of losing Coach Sakib Lovic wouldn't have helped. Another tough tie awaits them here.

Eastern Suburbs v Ryde City

The first fixture of this season saw at 2-2 draw at Wentworth Park, and after conceding 6 last week Eastern Suburbs Coach John Calleja will look for at least a repeat of that Round 3 game. For Ryde to come back from three down against Parramatta Eagles last week and then lose in injury time must have been heartbreaking, and if Eastern Suburbs can stiffen the centre of their defence then we think both teams will pick up another point each.

Sutherland Sharks v Blacktown City

Sutherland have lost striker Levi Stephen (see Super Soccer shorts) and he will be sorely missed. They would have fancied their chances in the washed out game against the central Coast but face a tough tie here. Blacktown could move clear at the top if they beat Fairfield on Friday and win this one, and the Demons should prove too strong for the Sharks.

Super Soccer will also be making a belated first appearance at Seymour Shaw Field and will bring you the very best action in next week's issue.

ROUND 12 REVIEW

The weekend got off to a wet start with the game between the Central Coast and the Sutherland Sharks being washed out, but as usual there was plenty of action to still keep the fans interested.

BLACKTOWN CITY 3
MACARTHUR RAMS 0

Paul Goodwin was at The Gabbie

Macarthur journeyed to the Gabbie Stadium looking to complete a double and thus cement their claims for the title, but they left the ground considerably deflated and humbled after a performance their coach Casey de Bruin described as 'by far the worst of the season'

Blacktown took the game to the visitors from the outset and Macarthur was forced to scramble clear on several occasions in the first half, but had few chances of their own.

A surging run by Jason Bennett and a perfectly delivered cross to the feet of John Angelucci could have seen the Demons in front as early as the 8th minute but a combination of Martin Bourke and keeper John Crawley was able to scramble the ball to safety.

From Damien Brown's cross from the left in the 14th Damien Smith smashed the ball against the crossbar with Crawley well beaten. And that was far from the end of the all out assault the home side mounted in an industrious first half.

A looping header from Angelucci in the 24th, after a free kick by Steve Riches had sent Brown to the edge of the box to deliver the cross, was tipped over brilliantly by the Rams' keeper.

Blacktown got the second half off to a perfect start with a goal inside 30 seconds.

John Angelucci needed two stabs at it but he finally drove the ball past John Crawley who had blocked his first effort, following a good ball played in by Aaron Holst.

Bennett had also been lurking and had a go at it himself before Angelucci got in the telling strike.

Angelucci also fired just wide in the 51st and Brown hit one over the bar in the 58th in a period which saw the Demons dominate once more.

Fernando Greco was called upon to make some crucial saves for the Demons, as Macarthur stepped up a gear, but the Rams had no answer when Bennett effected a simple tap-in in the 79th after Angelucci had shaken off several tackles and seen his shot palmed away by Crawley in the path of the other onrushing Blacktown player.

Damen Brown released Bennett in the 89th after the earlier scorer had waited patiently on his own side of half way just long enough to see the pass delivered and then sprinted through to deliver a controlled shot from 6 yards out.

Paul Richardson (no. 6) wins the airial battle.

Iain McDonald had been put through to face the keeper in the 66th, but it needed a top save by Greco to deny him at point blank range.

Shane Knight blasted over for Macarthur in the last minute after McDonnald's initial shot had been blocked by Greco, but the Rams will have a lot of thinking to do after this one as their shared lead has now been surrendered to their opponents in this game.

Blacktown coach Brian Brown singled out Aaron Holst for praise in a Demons side, which was strong in all departments. He went on to mention almost all he other players in the team and it was no wonder as so many played to their full potential.

His opposite number de Bruin had plenty to say, but none of it was complimentary. He explained that he had expected his side to show the necessary character to beat another title contender, but this quality was sadly lacking from almost everyone and the players would need to take a long hard look at themselves in their approach to the rest of the games in the second round.

Blacktown City: Greco, Lowe, Riches, D Brown , Holst, Foxe, D Smith Bradley, Sermanni, Angelucci (Yates 79), Bennett

Best for Macarthur: Dion Valle

Best for Blacktown City: Aaron Holst

BONNYRIGG WHITE EAGLES 6
FAIRFIELD BULLS 0

Bonnyrigg White Eagles swept title aspirants Fairfield Bulls aside with another power display in front of goal. Once again it was Colin Luff who took the honours with another hat-rick, as the Bonnyrigg hit-man took his goal tally for the season to 13.

In contrast the Bulls were held scoreless for the first time in Super League, although it wasn't for the lack of trying. Despite the lop-sided scoreline Fairfield did create some chances, but found young goalkeeper Sasha Bozic in great form. Bozic, who started the season as second choice behind Mladen Kos, was given his opportunity after the White Eagles inconsistent start to the season - and has quite literally grabbed his chance with both hands.

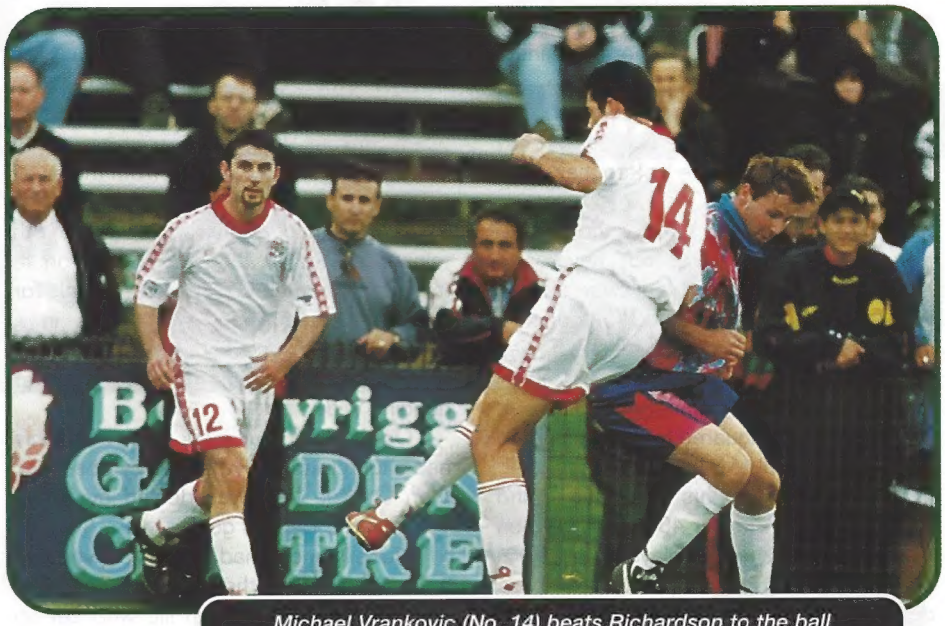
The scoreline read 3-0 at half time and 6-0 at full time, and the goals were scored as follows.

9 minutes - Johnny Ghisso won the ball in the penalty area and squared to Javier Mancino, who finished to make it 1-0 into the open goal. 25 minutes - Robert Gomez's corner fell nicely to Mancino to make it his and Bonnyrigg's second.

45 minutes - On the stroke of half-time Colin Luff got his first when he bravely dived in to head the ball home among some flying boots.

47 minutes - A breakaway saw Luff go around a defender and the goalkeeper to finish well to make it 4-0.

72 minutes - Paul Dee ran down the right hand side of the pitch into the penalty area, before driving the ball home low and hard off the far post.



Michael Vrankovic (No. 14) beats Richardson to the ball

84 minutes - To compound the Bulls' misery, Milan Savic's cross was expertly controlled by Luff, who turns well to make it 6-0 and also grab his hat-rick.

There is little to add to that - although the game poses probably the most interesting question in Super League so far. Is this a one-off for the Bulls or has their bubble burst?

Bonnyrigg White Eagles: Bozic, Racker, Crnokrak, Richardson, Mancino (Warburton) Luff, Ghisso, Gomez (Savic) Green (Xuereb) Dragas, Dee

Fairfield Bulls: Pupovac, Driene (Talevski), Grubba (Mandic), Zabetakis, Falzon, Hoenselaars, Borg, Bourke, Giometti, Treharn, Vrankovic

RYDE CITY 3
PARRAMATTA EAGLES 4

What a topsy turvey game soccer is. The Eagles looked to be on their way, finally, to their first away win of the year, when in the last minute up popsped Ryde veteran John Koch to curl a ball around the defensive wall to make it 3-3.

All this is after Ryde showed great spirit in coming back from 3-0 down, only for youngster Adam Anderson, who has performed admirably since moving up from the U21's and is highly rated by Coach Roberto Viera, raced through deep into injury time, rounded Les Bihari in the Gunner's goal and made it 4-3 to the visitors. Phew!

The scoring started in the fifth minute when Saso Boskovski, continuing the trend of players scoring after being featured in Super Soccer, scored directly from a quickly taken free kick to make it 1-0 to the visitors.

It could have been two for the visitors just three minutes later but newcomer Anthony Panzarino headed over after a long throw had been allowed to bounce.

It didn't seem to matter for the Eagles as after 15 minutes they went 2-0 up. A long ball caught the Gunners defence out, and the ball was squared for Grant Bard to add another goal to his tally.

Bard added his second and Parramatta's third after 45 minutes, when Ahmed Elrich, another player brought in who has performed superbly since his debut against Bankstown earlier this season, beat Andrew Nicol before squaring to Bard who finished easily.

That goal was quickly wiped out though by Craig Sharpley, who received the ball on the left hand side and shot home to make it 3-1.

Ryde got back into the game on 63 minutes, when Sharpley again scored. A great run by Craig Moffit saw the sweeper put Sharpley through, and the midfielder calmly put the ball past Holmes to make it 3-2.

Then game the dramatic twist to the game in the final few minutes, leaving the fans enthralled and rival coaches Les Decelis and Roberto Viera considerable older than 90 minutes previous!

Canterbury Marrickville 1 Bankstown City Lions 0

Steve Chrostoforidis seems to have a knack of scoring winning goals. He did it again on the weekend against Bankstown City Lions, and the Berries will be glad to have a player who may have scored just four goals this season, but everyone seems to see his team pick up the three points.

His goal came with just 14 minutes remaining, but owed much to Jane Talcevski, whose beautiful through ball enabled Christoforidis to finish neatly.

The Berries got a scare in the last ten minutes when Zoki Adioski's 'goal' was ruled offside, and also in the last minute when Stewart Van Bentum's cross across the face of goal saw no one from the away team there to put it away.

Adioski had come close in the 8th minute as well, hitting the post from a free-kick, but then George Kategiannis for the home team had two efforts in a minute, Zlatko Josevski saving from close range with his feet and then from a corner heading wide.

On the half hour mark Terry Palapanis had a long range drive saved by Josevski, then George Issa was denied by Steve Tolios in the Berries goal.

Jose Mendes had an effort saved just before the break, then five minutes after the re-start it was Zoran Ilic who set up Kategiannis, who was unable to finish.

Just two minutes before Christoforidis knocked in his goal it was Adioski again who caused the Berries defence trouble, shooting straight at Tolios, but nothing was going to deny the Berries number 10 from securing another three points for his team.

Canterbury Marrickville: Tolios, M Raeburn, Palapanis, Mendes, Markopoulos, Percy, Talcevski, Fedele, Ilic, Kategiannis (Soler) Christoforidis

Leichhardt Tigers 6 Eastern Suburbs 1

Mark Fowler was at Lambert Park

Steve Karavatakis is back in Super League - with a bang!

The ex-Parramatta Eagles striker has been playing with the Wollongong Wolves in the NSL - and how Eastern Suburbs must wish the NSL season had lasted just another week!

Karavatakis smacked home 5 goals on his Tigers' debut, including four at one stage in a seven minute spell.

The first half was actually an even contest, with Eastern Suburbs probably unlucky to go in 1-0 down, when Karavatakis scored with just two minutes left in the half.

Before that both teams had been equally matched, with big Vadim Mikoutski a standout in the Wanderers midfield, having a couple of efforts from long range narrowly miss.

The second half was a different story though. Coach Arno Bertogna made a switch, bringing on Chris Lansdown for David Petrini, and Lansdown caused havoc with his speed.

A minute after the restart Karavatakis tried an overhead scissors kick from about 25 metres that, although well struck, was never going to trouble Con Anastasiadis in the Eastern Suburbs goal. It turned out though he was only practising, as a minute later a cross from the right, seemingly going behind the forward, was thumped home with an acrobatic volley with Karavatakis a metre off the ground. One only wished for a TV replay.

A minute later Karavatakis netted his and the Tigers' third, then after 50 minutes incredibly it was four for the number 22 as he finished with the air of a man who knows his difficult craft expertly.

Despite being shell-shocked, Eastern Suburbs got what was always going to be a consolation when Mikoutski finished well. Karavatakis wasn't finished though, and he got his fifth and the Tigers fifth after 70 minutes. Once again, he showed great skill in cutting inside before shooting home with his left foot.

The last 15 minutes saw Leichhardt cut through the Eastern Suburbs defence at will, and should really have added to their lead before they did. After squandering a number of chances, Lansdown cracked home with three minutes to go after being set up by...Karavatakis.

The Tigers looked strong in defence, and Coach Bertogna will be pleased that while his striker will capture all the headlines, in order to score he needed the platform that came from the rest of the team. Defender Anthony Tesoro was a standout at the back, while Tom Bazdaric rarely put a foot wrong.

Eastern Suburbs Coach John Calleja was understandably upset with the result, and felt that his team had conceded a goal a bad time, just before the half time break. He did question his team's commitment in the second half, believing too many heads had dropped after the Tigers scored their quick goals after the re-start. All of a sudden there will be a few teams looking over their shoulders at the Tigers...

NEW CALEDONIA TOUR

The First Division Select side, coached by Tony Pezzano, defeated the New Caledonian National Team in both games on their short tour.

The visitors got up 2-1 in the first game on Friday 23.4.99, and 2-0 on Sunday 25.4.99.

The New South Wales First Division Select side got off to a great start against their hosts New Caledonia, winning the first of a two game series 2-1.

The visitors started well and were rewarded after just 11 minutes. A through ball by captain Bob Casserly saw the New Caledonian goalkeeper mis-time his clearance, leaving the prolific Dean Harding an easy finish with his right foot to make it 1-0.

Just six minutes later Kelvin Foster shot wide after some superb work, then after a quiet period it was Scott Mutton who couldn't find the target, heading over a Harding free kick.

The New South Wales team were given a scare just before the break though, Mark Rooke clearing off the line following a corner to the home team.

It was 1-0 at half time for the visitors, but it soon became 2-0, with Scott Mutton taking advantage of a brilliant through ball by Bill Petrovski.

Mutton used his pace to beat the defence before finishing strongly.

New South Wales continued to look comfortable, and Tony Pezzano made a number of changes in the last 15 minutes. New Caledonia took advantage with just six minutes to go from the penalty spot, Casserly adjudged to have fouled in the area, but managed to hold on to leave the final score at 2-1.

Game 2

The visitors were buoyed by their first up win, and playing with confidence went even better than two days previous, winning the second clash 2-0.

A quiet first half came alive in the last five minutes before the break.

Damien Rosenthal took advantage of some space down the middle to smash a shot against the crossbar, then the New Caledonian national team had a 'goal' disallowed for offside.

Just a minute before the break the New South Wales team got on the scoresheet, Rosenthal turning the defence before sending the goalkeeper the wrong way.

In front again the visitors came out and immediately after the re-start Dean Harding headed against the crossbar. Again a number of changes were made to the team, but on 69 minutes New South Wales made it 2-0.

After winning a corner Damien Rosenthal took it himself, and his cross was headed on by Nick Bolianitis. The header found Kelvin Foster close to goal, and he was able to tap in to make it 2-0.

Bolianitis then turned villain, after being booked on 58 minutes he was booked again just 20 minutes later, and was sent off leaving his side down to 10 men for the last 12 minutes of the game.

SUPER SOCCER SHORTS

The ANZAC Cup game between New South Wales and Northern New South Wales was washed out after four days of heavy rain in the Newcastle region. After losing last year's game to the weather Doug Utjesenovic and the boys were hopeful of making it three wins out of three since the Cup was re-introduced, but unfortunately the weather intervened once again.

It is hoped an alternative date can be arranged, although nothing has been announced as yet.

Sutherland have resigned themselves to lose one of their bright stars. Scot Levi Stephen is returning to Scotland for an ear operation, and as one of their bright sparks for the season will be sorely missed.

Now here's an interesting thought. Steve Karavatakis, who scored five on his debut for Leichhardt, lining up with ex-Tigers favourite John Buonavoglia?

Who knows...

Still on the Tigers, and good luck to them in trying to promote their clash with Canterbury Marrickville on May 30.

The Tigers are hoping for a bumper crowd and have lined up all sorts of activities for the kids, as well as free pasta from their major sponsors, Barilla Pasta. First Grade kicks off at 3:00pm but the gates open early as the U11's kick off events.

On to the World Youth Championships, and while criticism for Les Scheinflug's team continues, it is worth noticing that although Australia failed to qualify for the second round, Vince Grella, the ex-Carlton midfielder currently plying his trade with Empoli in Italy, lost 4.6kgs during ONE game! The Aussies were made to play at 4pm in the Nigerian heat, and as a consequence most of the players lost between 2.6 and 3.6 kilos.

Good to see the U17's Joey's training at Valentine Sports Park at Parklea last week. Coach Les Scheinflug was more than happy to oversee his two 'on-field' coaches for the sessions, the New South Wales Institute of Sport's own head coach Kelly Cross, plus Nick Theodorakpooulos of Wollongong Wolves.

1999 SEASON

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ROUND EIGHT SUMMARY

Stanmore Hawks, after a slow start to the season, are once again pressing for honours, with yet another big contribution from player-coach Eddie Briscoe helping them clinch an important win in the Arlington Oval derby on Sunday.

Dulwich Hill have been a little out of form so far in their return to the higher division and their defence has been found wanting on several occasions.

While plans are firmly in place to address this, it was not early enough to prevent the side that shares the ancient Dulwich Hill arena with them, the Hawks, from finding them out.

In the 17th minute a cross from Mario Rositanno reached the heart of the goalmouth but Phil Cacciola, not for the first time this season, failed to connect.

Stanmore's 25th minute corner could have provided the opener, but when a header from Theo Katsaros looked almost in Dulwich 'keeper Peter Trajcevski managed to palm the ball onto the post and away to safety.

Briscoe did get there before the defence in the 33rd to steer in a cross after the Hawks had been denied by that post earlier on and had already looked well on top. When Sasha Spiroski was brought down on the edge of the Stanmore box, however, a free kick by John Sherry was only parried by Paul Kyprianou and Zlatko Momorcevski put away the loose ball in the 41st for a surprise equaliser.

Right before the break veteran Burim Zajmi was allowed to stroll through the heart of the Dulwich defence and after his shot had taken a wicked deflection off Luis Perera, it sent the unfortunate keeper Peter Trajcevski the wrong way for the regained lead.

Briscoe completed the scoring in the 85th when he was first to react inside the area after the ball ran loose following a sustained period of pressure by the Hawks.

It was Stanmore's second win at the ground in two weekends and they are now looking more the side expected to challenge for the title this term.

Hurstville City Minotaurs are beginning to hit their straps, but they may have hoped to punish visitors Auburn by more than the 2-0 scoreline they recorded on Sunday at Hurstville Oval.

An early goal from Dario Fernandez and a late strike by the prolific Tom Pontidas were all they had to show for a day in which they dominated an opponent that was always keen to attack, but did not do enough to protect their own goal from constant assault.

The game, well controlled by referee Wayne Crabbe, was conducted in a sporting manner, hard yet fair.

In the 9th minute a cross from Spiro Kladis had the Auburn defence in all kinds of trouble, Haydar Arslan being unable to deal with it at the first attempt, allowing the menacing Nick Knithakis the chance to strike from 2 yards out. However the keeper recovered well to block the effort and when the ball ran free to Peter Joannou he put it wide with the goal at his mercy.

It was the first start for the youngster and nerves may have played their part.

It took only 20 minutes for the Minotaurs to get their noses in front. A Tom Pontidas corner was headed firmly and accurately past Arslan by Dario

Fernandez for a 1-0 lead by the home side.

Pontidas was on fire once more and his 28th and 30th minute shots struck the woodwork, firstly the crossbar and secondly the upright, otherwise it could have been a 3-0 lead by that stage.

Big blond Auburn defender Gavin Backhouse came up for a corner in the 35th and headed just over the bar, but most of the action continued to take place at the opposite end, George Kalogeras hitting the post with a fierce drive which had taken a deflection away from goal during its path in the 40th minute.

A great run by the elusive Eric Vasilliadis ended with a cross from the left providing Pontidas with a header that Arslan pushed away for a corner.

Pontidas also had a shot cleared off the Auburn line in the 54th after Knithakis had squandered another chance.

In the 78th Pontidas laid on a pass for Vasilliadis but the nippy wingman put the chance wide, then returned the service two minutes later with a fine pass which Pontidas at last put away to seal the issue from 12 yards.

While Auburn were missing the suspended Huseyin Bayhan who is usually a handful, the Minotaurs had both of their regular custodians out of action and gave George Beardmore a rare outing instead.

Michael Kladis was also absent, but Auburn had Taner Omac back after an absence of some months.

The win, the Hurstville side's third, lifted them to five places off the bottom and ready to launch an assault on the title once more this year.

ROUND NINE PREVIEW

There are many interesting clashes this weekend, none more so than the game at St George Stadium between the local Saints and the unbeaten Manly Warringah.

Fresh from their triumph in New Caledonia where Damien Rosenthal and Kelvin Foster both scored in the second game, the Dolphins will be set a stern task by St George player-coach Paul Carter

In a game which should bring supporters out in force Manly will try to be the first side to win at the ground this season, while the Saints will look to improve their strike rate at home, where they have only scored twice in four outings, yet remain unbeaten at headquarters.

Another tense game is in prospect and a draw could again be the outcome.

At Arlington Oval Stanmore Hawks meet Illawarra Lions who won on the ground against Dulwich Hill a few weeks back. This is a game that the Lions might win too, given their potent strike force and Jim Melissourgos's familiarity with the ground he played on for so many years for Canterbury-Marrickville.

Auburn are back at Mona Park for the visit of Dulwich Hill and they could return to form as they produce their best at this home ground and Dulwich are still having difficulties.

Rockdale and Hurstville City Minotaurs is an interesting one at the Ilinden Soccer Centre where there have been a lot of goals scored again this year.

Minotaurs usually do well here and this could be the case again this time.

Moorebank are going to find it very hard against Bathurst 75 who are always keen to win in Sydney and have been playing as well as ever this year. A point is not beyond the locals, but a Bathurst win is a much more likely outcome.

Penrith tackles A C United at Nepean Rugby Union Oval with the home side still ruing their misfortune against Manly in their last outing. They should win this one though.

Penrith Panthers' outstanding game at Moorebank will now be staged next Wednesday, 5th May at 7.30.

Paul Goodwin

While Auburn were missing the suspended Huseyin Bayhan who is usually a handful, the Minotaurs had both of their regular custodians out of action and gave George Beardmore a rare outing instead.

ROUND SIX SUMMARY

HAJDUK WANDERERS ALONE AT THE TOP AFTER SATURDAY GAMES

The midweek catch up game at Cook Park provided a lesson in tactical advantage as Fraser Park used their superior height to claim a game they had fallen behind in to hosts Mount Pritchard.

Mounties took the lead in the 16th minute when a corner from Greg Baldock was headed home by Clinton Green, despite this being one of the home team's rare attacks at that stage.

Fraser strung together a nice passing game in their approach work, but near to goal they used crosses to create chances for their tall strike force.

Some good lead up work in the 24th led to Matthew Zec collecting his eighth goal of the season and bringing his side back on level terms after a fine cross by Chris Gibson

When rampaging wing back Gibson was bundled over in the 33rd minute Fraser's now regular penalty taker Sean Strang stroked it effortlessly past Matt Darwen for a handy half time lead.

In a scrimmage in the 63rd former Hurstville City Minotaurs' midfielder Matthew Remondos, who is enjoying a new lease of life at his new club, stabbed home a loose ball to extend the lead to 3-1.

A Fraser Park free kick from John Scotadis was cleared off the line by John Cosentino in the 66th and in the 83rd, a ball headed down by David Butt was driven left footed into the goal by Zec for his second, to wrap things up at 4-1.

Saturday's big event was the Sydney University hosting of the powerhouse Hajduk Wanderers.

It was a game that lived up to its billing, a match that tested Hajduk for the first time this season to any real extent.

That there was no score at the break was a fair indication of how even things had been and either side could have scored with better finishing.

Probably the key to the result was the highly organised Hajduk defence which would not let any of the University players have the room they needed inside the penalty area.

Chris Senat was able to keep a tight hold on the much taller and physically more potent strike force by his guile and sound positioning.

At the other end the students were giving nothing away either, but when they relaxed their concentration for just a moment the visitors found a chink in their armour.

It came in the 71st minute when a deep cross from the right was sent over by Chris Rasmuss and with the keeper unable to come far enough to collect it the ball reached Steven Scotti well out from the far post and whose looping header was sent back the other way beyond the reach of Matt Craw's grasp.

Craw was also stranded in the 76th when the goal that sealed it was scored.

He was well placed to save from Damien Brown drive, but the former Sydney Uni player's shot deflected off a defender in a quite different direction and the ball nestled in the corner for the net.

Uni's strike force of Luke McDougall and Rob Smithies worked hard all afternoon and with an ounce of luck either could have scored on more than one occasion.

Great work by Chris Bowman in the 17th saw Smithies make a big run to collect the pass and then steer the ball across the face of goal from a tight angle and McDougal just failed to reach it.

The ball was hooked off the Hajduk line a minute later after a corner to the students had seen the keeper drop the ball.

A big run by Shaun Merat, one of the home team's best on the day, saw the ball played to the feet of McDougal, but the tall striker screwed the ball wide.

Hajduk had chances to Brown which he blasted over in the 11th and to Brian Vella that Craw claimed in the junction of the post and the bar as the ball looked set to sneak into the top right corner of the net.

The students' best second half chance fell to Smithies after another big run by Merat and a pass laid on by McDougal, but this time the ball cleared the bar.

On this showing both sides will give others a lot of trouble throughout the season.

Fraser Park went down to an inspired Hurstville ZSC 1-2 at Hurstville Oval, a 21st minute Ante Buntic free kick putting the home side a goal up until Jon Flack replied with another dead ball opportunity in the 25th.

The winner also came early in the game Bob Simunic scoring in the 32nd for Hurstville whose coach John Gagro was vindicated for several selection changes after a recent run of disappointing results.

Meanwhile Mount Pritchard bounced back from the midweek setback to gain a point in their game with Arncliffe at Cook Park on Saturday. David Dominguez opened the scoring in the 56th minute, but just four minutes later Rob Todorovski had levelled after Mike Grbevski's first shot had come off the post and that's the way it stayed.

They despatched a useful Greystanes 6-1 at Popondetta Park, with experienced striker Paul Graham scoring a late hat trick to add to two goals by Graham Bananno and a final goal from up and comer John Van Ward.

Gary Comerford had equalised in the 15th minute in response to the opener for Mount Druitt from Bananno five minutes earlier.

Luck was with the home side as they continued to find the target, establishing a 2-1 lead by the 36th minute, but the late avalanche flattered the locals who played well, but were well matched by the visitors for most of the game.

Hills United have taken a while to settle down this season and the number of washouts has not helped their cause. They stormed back in no uncertain fashion to beat Sydney District 5-0 at Fred Caterson,

Ashley Mathieson opening the scoring for them in the 26th after good lead up work by Tim Gledhill.

Gledhill got his second and the fourth for Hills in the 52nd and Julian Miller completed the scoring in the 88th. Hills' keeper Abby Alamedine made some important saves from a District side that continued to attack well into the game.

Belmore Hercules were stunned by an early strike from University of NSW through their striker Jonathan Dmoch in the 8th minute, but recovered well to draw level in the 29th from ace marksman George Ganiatsas and it was the first point the students had taken from their opening five games, which would be very heartening for them.

ROUND SEVEN SUMMARY

HAJDUK CRASH - FRASER PARK RECOVER TO SHARE LEAD AGAIN

Shock waves ran through the Second Division camps as news filtered through that Mount Druitt had hung on to beat Hajduk Wanderers at Hajduk Stadium on Monday afternoon. It was the Premiers first defeat since being founded last year and their lead at the top of the table was short lived as Fraser Park returned to the winners' list the same day.

Mount Druitt snatched a 38th minute lead through evergreen Paul Graham and the visitors kept a tight rein for the rest of the game on their more fancied opponents.

Over at Bathurst Street park, meanwhile, erstwhile equal leaders Fraser were down 2-0 to Greystanes who had been struggling to date and were not expected to trouble the visitors.

Andrew Cauchi in the 15th and Gary Comerford in the 34th had the home side one up, but a Jon Flack penalty reduced the arrears and the Stanes could not hold the lively Fraser at bay any longer than the 62nd when Flack was called upon once more to drill one in from the spot.

Matthew Zec in the 65th and Ante Zizic ten minutes later made sure that Greystanes would still be looking for their first win, though they did score again in the 89th thanks to Justin Yule.

Sydney University continued their good form with a solid 3-0 win at Hills United. Good lead up work and a telling cross from the byline by Rob Smithies allowed the skilful Shaun Heart to open the scoring in the 16th and it was an even game that could have seen Hills draw level before the Uni could add to their tally, but Tim Gledhill hit the bar with the goal gaping.

Instead Smithies nodded a ball down for Luke McDougal to smash home in the 62nd and Smithies himself cracked one in for the visitors in the 83rd to seal a good performance all round.

Sydney District had hopes of a first win when Alex Aravena sent Senen Ibanez through to score in the 57th, with a nice cross after winning the ball on half way and the long range shot was a delight for the success starved supporters after a tense first half had been scoreless. Arncliffe expected better and drew level in the 70th as Steve Josevski had strolled past three defenders and beaten the keeper with a cool finish.

Hurstville ZSC recorded their second win of the weekend and seem back on track after a dodgy few games in the early weeks. Tom Milicevic had them in front early from a hotly disputed penalty, but his 12th minute goal was not really enough and it needed a goal early in the second half from Steve Zoric to put the home side in control. Substitute Gary Deprato netted a third in the 75th and Zoric got another in the 85th for the eventual 4-0 win.

At David Phillips Field in Daceyville the tough Mount Pritchard accounted for a plucky University of NSW side 3-1, after going a goal down in the 4th minute.

Russell Cotton hit a free kick firmly from just outside the area and when the ball penetrated the wall and deflected towards goal the defenders stood still while Jonathan Dmoch peeled away from the wall to go on and beat the keeper with a deft finish.

Frank Cosentino, controlling the midfield for the Mounties, made ground down the right and crossed smartly for Clinton Green to volley home at the near post in the 9th minute for an equaliser.

Cosentino again was involved as ball he had won was played in behind the defence by Diego Dominguez for Green to go on and shake off a defender before hitting a low, left footed shot past the keeper in the 55th.

When the lively Greg Baldock was brought down by the Uni keeper on the edge of the box Cosentino kept a cool head to provide a 3-1 scoreline at the finish.

ROUND EIGHT PREVIEW

The Division's followers will get another chance to see some Saturday action at the delightful St Paul's College Oval when Sydney University take on the attractive Sydney District, but be early to find suitable parking as nearby streets are very popular with shoppers at the nearby new complex on Broadway.

Uni are a good team and will be aiming for another solid performance against an excellent footballing opponent.

Tough as teak Mt Pritchard tackle the much improved Hurstville ZSC at Cook Park on Sundayin a game which could go either way, but Hurstville's class and a pitch which should suit them make us lean their way here.

Belmore Hercules and Greystanes at Blick Oval is another intriguing contest which could provide a victory for the visitors if they can keep a tight hold on George Ganiatsas. If not they may be punished and Belmore could have a big day.

Fraser Park plays Hajduk Wanderers at Fraser Park where a big crowd should witness an epic clash. It seems that Fraser were a little complacent in their latest two outings, but they do have the players to trouble Hajduk, though they will need to be at their best to win this one, a game to savour.

Mt Druitt Town Rangers are enjoying their best start to a season in a few years, after an early hiccup, so the visit of Hills United to Popondetta Park should not faze them.

They ought to go on with the job and win this one too, though Hills do have good strikers, it must be said. Not as simple to select as it seems, but a home win still should be the solution.

Arncliffe Scots will have a good chance of a win at the expense of University of NSW at Scots Field, but the first point the students gained last weekend will have given them confidence and they may be able to get another here. The Scots reckon they are a much better side at home, both of their wins being there and by secure margins. This should again be the case here.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

Round 9 and 10 review

It was a double round for the Super Youth League last weekend due to the public holiday, so find out below how your team fared!

Grade 13

Blacktown City Demons enjoyed another two wins to keep them firmly at the top of the table. A 4-0 win over Eastern Suburbs in Round 9 was followed by a 7-1 home defeat of the Leichhardt Tigers.

Wollongong Wolves sit in second after also picking up maximum points from the weekend. A 3-1 home victory over Sutherland Sharks was followed by a good Round 10 win away at Southern Districts - 4-3.

Newcastle Breakers are in third after also picking up six points. A tough 3-2 defeat of Sydney United was followed up by another close game just two days later - a 1-0 victory over Macarthur Rams.

Parramatta Eagles are in fourth after two good wins, a 2-1 defeat of Central Coast in Round 9 was followed by a good 3-0 away win at Southern Branch in Round 10.

Southern Districts are in fifth despite their home loss to Wollongong, as two days previous they defeated Macarthur Rams at Lynwood Park 1-0.

It meant a tough weekend for the Rams, who although have won only once in ten games have drawn five, and would consider themselves unlucky to lose both their games by 1-0.

Eastern Suburbs picked up only their third point of the season by drawing 0-0 with Manly Warringah, although in losing to Blacktown they certainly weren't disgraced.

Marconi Fairfield are in mid-table after picking up four points on the weekend, a 3-0 home defeat of Manly Warringah and a 1-1 draw at Sutherland Sharks.

As mentioned above it meant just one point for Manly Warringah, making it five for the season, as their defeat at Marconi Fairfield was compensated by the point against Eastern Suburbs.

Both the Central Coast and Sydney United played only one game each after some torrential rain up the coast was their round 10 game out. Both clubs also lost their round 9 matches, the Coasties 2-1 at Parramatta Eagles and Sydney United 3-2 at home to Newcastle.

The Sharks were another team to pick up one point from their two games with their 1-1 draw at home to Marconi Fairfield, but they had lost two days before at Wollongong.

Leichhardt Tiger shave 16 points after drawing with Sydney Olympic 2-2 on Saturday, although they then ran into the leaders Blacktown in fine form in Round 10, while Sydney Olympic's point in that game against the Tigers was their only one of the weekend, as they lost 2-0 to Gladesville Hornsby on Monday.

It was a double celebration for the Gladesville Hornsby boys, as that win went with their 2-1 defeat of Southern Branch, who also lost the game to Parramatta in Round 10.

Grade 14

Wollongong Wolves sit proudly on to of the table after 10 rounds, despite a 5-0 thrashing at the hands of second-placed Southern Districts in Round 10. The Wolves had just pipped Sutherland 3-2 on the Saturday, but Southern Districts had missed the chance to go above the Wolves by only drawing 0-0 on the Saturday against Macarthur Rams.

In fact it was a good weekend for Macarthur, as well as picking up a point against a club in second they also defeated Newcastle Breakers 1-0. That loss added to the Breakers misery after losing 2-1 at Sydney United in Round 9.

Blacktown City Demons can be happy with their weekend's word, winning 4-2 against Eastern Suburbs and 1-0 against Leichhardt, who unfortunately also lost on the Saturday 2-0 against Sydney Olympic.

It was a most profitable weekend for Olympic, as they also defeated Gladesville Hornsby 2-1 and now sit in third place.

With the washout between the Central Coast and Sydney United in round 10, United's win over Newcastle Breakers sees them in fourth with a game in hand, while the Coasties 2-0 loss against Parramatta Eagles sees them at the bottom of the table.

Eastern Suburbs are second to bottom after losing 4-0 against Manly Warringah as well as the 4-2 reversal against Blacktown, while Manly Warringah also picked up another point away at Marconi Fairfield. It was a good weekend for the Marconi Fairfield boys actually, as they also picked up three points by defeating Sutherland Sharks 3-1 at bates Drive.

For Sutherland, they missed a great chance to move up the table with that defeat and also the one by Wollongong.

Parramatta Eagles are in mid-table after their 2-0 win over the Coasties, and they also picked up maximum points by defeating Southern Branch 4-0. The Southern Branch also lost in round 9 action to Gladesville

Round 8 review

Grade 13's

The Illawara Lions lost their 100% record for the season, but remain unbeaten and top of the table after drawing 1-1 away at Bonnyrigg White Eagles. The goal the Lions conceded was only their fourth in eight matches.

St George remains hot on the heels of the Lions, and are just one point behind with a game in hand. While their scheduled Round 8 match with Bankstown Association was washed out, the Saints were able to play a Round 4 re-scheduled match against Rockdale City Suns, keeping the pressure up with a convincing 4-1 victory.

Blacktown Association are in third after the weekends fixtures, although they are now 5 points behind the leaders after drawing with Ryde City 0-0.

AC United suffered a mixed bag on the weekend, defeating Canterbury Association 6-0 but losing 6-2 at home to the Bankstown Association.

When the two bottom clubs met at Nineveh Field something had to give, as both Fairfield Bulls and Canterbury Marrickville were winless. It was the away team who took the spoils though, Canterbury Marrickville taking it 4-2.

Bonnyrigg's meritable draw at home to St George was made even better by defeating Stanmore Hawks 2-1 away from home, while Rockdale City enjoyed a good tussle with Penrith Panthers, emerging 1-0 winners. The weekend's other game also saw a 1-0 result, Hills United defeating Stanmore Hawks at Pratten Park.

Grade 14's

Ryde City are top after their 2-0 win over Blacktown Association, while AC United remain the only unbeaten team in the league after disposing of both Canterbury Association and Bankstown Association 2-0. Bonnyrigg White Eagles were another team to pick up two wins on the weekend, and are in third after beating Illawara Lions 4-0 and Stanmore Hawks 2-1.

St George enjoyed a narrow 1-0 victory over Rockdale City, while Penrith Panthers also defeated Rockdale, 4-1 at Rockdale Sports Ground.

Canterbury Marrickville picked up their first win of the season, 1-0 at Fairfield, while Hills United picked up their second win with a 3-2 victory over Stanmore Hawks.

Grade 15's

Leaders AC United picked up a maximum six points from the weekend, beating Bankstown Association 1-0 and hammering Canterbury Association 6-0. Penrith maintained their challenge with a 5-1 defeat of Rockdale, while Hills United suffered only their second defeat of the season, losing 2-1 to Stanmore. The Hawks had a good weekend, as they moved to fourth after also defeating Bonnyrigg 4-2. The White Eagles bounced back from that defeat to pick up a point in a 2-2 draw against Illawara.

Canterbury Marrickville picked up their first win with a 3-1 win over Fairfield, as did Rockdale City who defeated St George 3-1, while Blacktown Association and Ryde City picked up a point each in a 2-2 draw.

Grade 16's

Its tight at the top of the Grade 16 ladder, but Blacktown Association lead after picking up a point in a 1-1 draw with Ryde. AC United are second but suffered a miserable weekend, losing 3-0 to Canterbury Association and drawing 1-1 with Bankstown Association.

Illawara Lions are fourth but they slipped up too, losing 3-0 at Bonnyrigg, who also drew 0-0 with Stanmore Hawks, who are in fifth after beating Hills United 2-0.

Like their other age groups Canterbury Marrickville were winless going into this round, and like their other age groups the G16's also won, 1-0 away at Fairfield.

Rockdale City had a good weekend, picking up their first two wins of the season by defeating St George 1-0 and the Penrith Panthers 3-2.

Round 5

Grade 13's

Ku-ring-gai Association stay top of the table after Round 5. They defeated the club who were in second before the game, Mt Druitt Town, 2-1 at Parklands Oval to open up a 2 point gap.

Mt Druitt's loss sees them slip to fifth, as Hajduk Wanderers, Macquarie Sports and the Nepean Association were all quick to close the gap.

Hakduk scored a hard-fought 2-1 away win at bottom club Parramatta City, who remain without a win, while Macquarie Sports were too good for the Camden Tigers, winning 2-0.

In a day of close games Nepean Association and Hawkesbury City drew 0-0, while there were two 1-0 away wins for CSI Schofields and Mt Pritchard.

Granville Association were the ones to suffer at the hands of Mt Pritchard, the result lifting the away club above Granville, while at Hammondville Oval CSI Schofields also leap-frogged their hosts, Moorebank Sports.

Grade 14's

Hajduk Wanderers extended their lead at the top of the table by defeating Parramatta City 3-0. Their lead is now three points, as second placed Macquarie Sports could only manage a goalless draw with Camden Tigers.

CSI Schofields secured the biggest win of the day and a jump of two places into third, after downing Moorebank Sports 5-0, while Granville Association and Mt Pritchard remain close to each other after their 2-2 draw at Garside Park.

Mt Druitt Town are fourth on the ladder after their 1-0 victory over Ku-ring-gai Association, while in the days other game the Nepean Association went above visitors Hawkesbury City after winning 4-1.

Grade 15's

Parramatta City took the honours in the big clash at Eric Primrose Reserve, defeating previous leaders Hajduk Wanderers 3-2. The win sees Parramatta go top of the table, with a one point gap over their visitors and Mt Pritchard.

Mt Pritchard picked up another three points, this time in a close one against Granville Association 3-2, while Moorebank Sports remain without a win after losing by the same score to CSI Schofields.

The Ku-ring-gai Association are in fourth after a 3-1 win over Mt Druitt Town, while Hawkesbury City shocked hosts Nepean Association in picking up their first win, a 2-1 victory at Cook Park.

Macquarie Sports 1-0 victory over the Camden Tigers sees both teams with equal records after five rounds - won two and lost three.

Grade 16's

The Nepean Association maintained their three point gap at the top of the table after picking up their fifth straight win. This time it was Hawkesbury City who fell to the Nepean boys, as the home club wrapped up a 5-0 victory.

Camden Tigers kept the pressure up though with a 1-0 victory over Macquarie Sports, while in the clash of the bottom two Moorebank Sports edged out CSI Schofields 2-1.

Parramatta City are in third after their 2-0 win at home to Hajduk Wanderers, while Mt Druitt Town also have 10 points after defeating Ku-ring-gai Association 3-0.

The days other game saw a 1-1 draw between Granville Association and Mt Pritchard.

Cadet League Division One - Round 6 REVIEW

Grade 11's

Canterbury Marrickville opened up a two point gap at the top of the table after defeating Marconi Fairfield 3-2 at Henson Park. The win was even sweeter for the home side as Marconi Fairfield were in third place at the start of play, while second placed St George were held to a 2-2 draw at the unbeaten Sydney United.

Things can change at the top though as both St George and Sydney United have games in hand on the current leaders, and Sydney United played Eastern Suburbs on Monday 26 April - their 8-0 victory putting them within striking distance of the leaders.

Leichhardt Tigers are third after a 4-0 win over Eastern Suburbs, who remain bottom, while the two Parramatta teams also remain winless.

Parramatta City were defeated at home 1-0 by the Macarthur Rams, and Parramatta Eagles drew with Ryde City 2-2 at Wentworth Park.

Grade 12's

First played third going into Round 6, and honours were even as Sydney United and St George fought out a 1-1 draw. Parramatta Eagles were only too quick to take advantage of both teams dropping points, and in picking up a 2-0 away victory at Ryde City they went top of the table, albeit for 24 hours. Their lead lasted that length of time as Sydney United defeated Eastern Suburbs 3-2 on the Monday, and therefore now have a one point lead.

Parramatta City join Ryde City at the bottom of the table without a point after Macarthur Rams picked up their third win of the season with a 2-1 victory, while Leichhardt with games in hand could move up the table after a 4-1 defeat of Eastern Suburbs.

Marconi Fairfield also look in good touch as they defeated Canterbury Marrickville 3-0 away from home.

Cadet League Division Two - Round 8 REVIEW

Grade 11's

With Hills United playing Stanmore Hawks on the Monday, Illawara Lions went two points clear at the top of the table with a 7-3 thumping of CSI Schofield's. Penrith Panthers moved above Hills with a 3-0 away win at AC United. The two clubs joy was short-lived though, as Hills beat Stanmore Hawks 2-1 at home, which put them back on top of the table level with the Lions.

Hajduk Wanderers also did their chances no harm with a good 2-0 victory at Hurstville City, and while Macquarie Sports downed Moorebank Sports 4-0 and have a number of games in hand.

Grade 12's

AC United went top after smashing high-flyers Penrith Panthers 4-1, while Macquarie Sports downed Moorebank Sports by the same score-line. The Monday battle between front runners Hills United and Stanmore Hawks proved as close as their respective lead positions suggested, and Hills moved a point clear at the top after a hard-fought 1-0 victory.

Hawkesbury City also scored four, but this time without reply, as they picked up their first win of the season against Mt Pritchard, while Illawara Lions remain in the top group after their 1-1 draw at home to CSI Schofields.

In the days other game Hurstville City remain without a win after losing at home to Hajduk Wanderers.

Hornsby, 7-0, who lost their round 10 match with Sydney Olympic.

Grade 15

Gladesville Hornsby are the surprise leaders after round 10, and remain undefeated. A 3-0 win over Southern Branch was followed by a 2-0 away win at Sydney Olympic, and means they are on top on goal difference from Marconi Fairfield, and have played a game less.

Marconi Fairfield themselves picked up a 3-0 win over Manly Warringah, but dropped two points by drawing 2-2 at Sutherland. It was the second draw of the weekend for the Sharks, as they also drew on the Saturday 1-1 with Wollongong.

The Wolves are another team near the top who dropped points, as they went down 3-0 away at Southern Districts on the Monday.

The Southern Districts boys though are now in fourth place, as that win against Sutherland had been preceded by a 3-2 defeat of Macarthur Rams in their round 9 clash. The Rams' misery also continued on the Monday, as they were hammered 6-1 at home to the Newcastle Breakers, who also picked up maximum points in defeating Sydney United 3-1.

Sydney United's scheduled round 10 match with the Central Coast was called off due to the weather, but the Coasties were celebrating only their second win of the season when they defeated Parramatta Eagles 1-0.

The Eagles however did pick up their fourth point of the season in drawing 0-0 at Southern Branch, who has lost their round 9 clash to Gladesville Hornsby.

Leichhardt Tigers went down to two defeats, a 3-0 reversal against Sydney Olympic and 2-1 away at Blacktown, the Demons looking dangerous in third after also disposing of Eastern Suburbs 4-0.

Eastern Suburbs also lost their round 10 clash with Manly Warringah 3-1, who themselves had succumbed to Marconi Fairfield on Saturday.

Sydney Olympic's 3-0 victory over Leichhardt just gave them three points from the weekend after losing 2-0 to Gladesville Hornsby, Olympic sitting in sixth place.

Grade 16

Sydney Olympic sit at the top of the table, two points clear of Newcastle Breakers, but the Breakers have two games in hand.

Olympic however only picked up one point from the weekend, losing to Leichhardt Tigers 2-0 and only managing a 3-3 draw at Gladesville Hornsby.

Newcastle on the other hand beat Sydney United 2-0 and Macarthur Rams 5-3 in a high-scoring game, while Leichhardt's fine win over the leaders was also helped with a 1-1 draw at Blacktown.

Manly Warringah Dolphins are in fourth after beating both Marconi Fairfield and eastern Suburbs 2-1, while Blacktown in fifth also defeated the Wanderers, 4-0, in addition to their draw at Lambert Park in Round 9.

Gladesville Hornsby are sixth after their draw with Sydney Olympic and a 2-1 defeat of Southern Branch, who were hammered in round 10 by the Parramatta Eagles 5-0.

The Eagles are in eighth spot after that win, although they were surprise losers to the Central Coast, going down 1-0.

The Coasties game with Sydney United was called off in Round 10, and with United losing to Newcastle in round 9 it means they are in ninth spot.

Macarthur Rams picked up a valuable point in drawing 1-1 with Southern Districts, who lost to the Wolves 4-1 in Round 10.

Wollongong had been struggling on the league table, but that win and a Saturday victory over Sutherland sees them climb the ladder.

That loss by Sutherland and a 2-2 draw with Marconi Fairfield sees the Sharks fifth from bottom, while Marconi Fairfield themselves are in seventh after losing in round 9 to Manly Warringah.
